

Foreword

This work is based on the courses on «Worldviews» which I give at the University of Navarra. The dialogues are arranged, not in a strict chronological sequence, but in the order in which I discuss the topics in class. The questions raised by the character «S» in the dialogues are those that a person with common sense might ask, or those which in fact have been posed by my students over these years.